

one job or career or to leave them behind; to make a geographical move; to propose a marriage or a divorce; and many others. This morning we reflect on some of the approaching passages in our lives and how we might create rites of passage to mark them. People are encouraged to share with me by email some of the passages you have experienced or that you see approaching. dmacmillan@uuma.org

After serving six congregations, Dave MacMillan is enjoying retirement at the Italo Hotel & enjoying the best days of his life. He has been called to guide a vision fast in China in October.

“BRAVADOS Anthology”

Prepared by: Janice Kimball and four readers
Service Associate: Carol Johnson

Prepare to be captivated by candid and deeply personal readings by four members of the Lake Chapala Unitarian Universalist Fellowship community who have contributed to the anticipated publication of BRAVADOS, an anthology of narratives by 21 authors, all of whom live in the Lake Chapala area. Their stories should open your eyes to the benefits of living in a rich and diverse Latin culture that reveres its elders. They reveal the unexpected ease of their transitions into a foreign environment and the hidden treasures they are still discovering on their journeys.

- Heidi MacLennan will be reading from A FOOT IN EACH COUNTRY by Helen White
- D'Vorah Kelley will read from LOVE IS NEVER ENDING
- Carol Johnson will read CLIPS FROM A TRAVELERS NOTEBOOK for Liz Moulder who died before the manuscript of BRAVADOS was complete.
- Janice Kimball will read from THE RESURRECTION.

Summer Solstice Potluck

LCUUF members and friends braved the heat on Wednesday June 21st to celebrate the Summer Solstice and enjoy an impressive potluck spread.

Thank you Paula Odom and the hospitality team for planning and organizing this event!
