THIS WEEK: SUNDAY JANUARY 14, 2024

"Inspired"

Presenter: Rev. Scott Cooper

Service Associate: Cat Barnett

It's become a tradition at year's end at the Houston church to reflect on lives we may look toward for inspiration, especially those individuals who passed away the previous year. Then, just two weeks later, the United States sets aside a Monday to reflect on the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the minister, political philosopher, and prominent civil rights leader. To whom do we look to for inspiration, and by doing so, perhaps even provide inspiration to others?

NEXT WEEK: Sunday
January 21, 2024

"The Power of Connection"

Presenter: Rev. Tim Boeve

D'vorah Kelley: Service Associate

Author Brené Brown writes that "Connection is the energy that exists between people when they feel seen, heard and valued; when they can give and receive without judgment; and when they derive sustenance and strength from the relationship." However, the most important and first connection we must make to truly succeed in connecting with others is the one we make with our own selves. The Rev. Tim Boeve, a retired Protestant minister from California and current resident of Ajijic will explore the benefits of making strong connections with others and with ourselves. In today's world when so many people feel isolated and alone, the ability to make significant connections with others is more important than ever. Our very lives may depend upon it.
