August 3, 2025Sunday's Service

The lecture series we have been anticipating is finally here and the next two Sunday we will receive overviews to enrich our understanding.

The Rich Tapestry of Mexican History

Dan Grippo will introduce next week's lecture series that will explore aspects of Mexican history, giving an overview of the week's topics. Dan has a PhD. in Latin American Studies and presents an ongoing series at the International Friendship Circle every year. Dee Dee Camhi will be the service associate.

Next Sunday's ServiceCurrent Affairs of Mexico

With over 20 years of experience, Carlos Navarro is an expert in Mexican culture, and he specializes in making the country's complexities accessible to foreigners. Today's service will focus on exploring what is happening currently in the political scene in Mexico in preparation for the week's more specific topics.

Share the Basket for August is Asociación Proméxico

Each year, women from 11 villages throughout the Lake Chapala region are enrolled in a free 7-10 month course, housed in San Juan Cosala, which provides education and career training, as well as mentoring through their "Second Chances" program, housed. Each term 30-40 women graduate and go on to support their families, themselves, and the community in a variety of ways.

Lecture Series: Understanding Mexican History and Culture

We have all been looking forward to the series of presentations that Social Action has arranged. The presentations will from 10am to 1pm at the fellowship.

Scam Alert

Please know that if you get an email that looks like it came from any minister or fellowship representative asking for money or gift cards it is a scam. It has not happened here yet, but it has happened in at least one other UU church.

A New Women's Contemplative and Sharing Circle

A circle of 6-7 LCUUF women who want to gather for silent time together and to discuss a book on spirituality and aging will begin in September. The goal is to build trust, share deeply and grow in intimacy. Each session will last 1½ hours; we will meet twice a month. If you are interested please email Adele St. Pierre at astpierre2345@gmail.com for more information.

Care Team

Lorna Dean and Lois Cugini remain hospitalized. Lorna is recovering from gallbladder surgery and should be home soon. Lois is in intensive care.

John DeWaal has returned and is in Casa Consuelo. John's sons selected this facility and are overseeing John's progress.

Charlie Jacobs has been given a positive report that his heart function has improved.

Mark your Calendar

Thursday morning, meet fellowship members and friends at 10:30 at Los Gringos, above the ice cream shop on the Ajijic plaza.
