July 13, 2025*Sunday's Service

"Forbidden Knowledge" the Gospel of Mary and the Path Within

This Sunday Richard Clarke will give the talk and Carol Johnson will be the service associate. Discover the hidden wisdom of the Gospel of Mary, a text suppressed for centuries, and explore its deep resonance with the teachings of Indian sage, Ramana Maharshi. This talk reveals a path that bypasses dogma and hierarchy, pointing inward instead. The talk will include reflections especially relevant for Unitarian Universalists and all seekers of inner truth.

Sunday's Hymns

This Sunday we will be singing the following hymns. Watch the YouTube if you are a song leader or you would just like to sing them better.

Ilona de Borhegyi is at home as she and her doctor determine the best treatment for her cardiological condition.

Social Action Team

The Social Action Team is planning an extraordinary opportunity to learn about about Mexican culture, history, and contemporary affairs through a two week lecture series in August.

From August 4 through 14, there will be lectures on Monday through Thursday. On August 6, there will be a luncheon designed to provide discussion. Finally, there will be two Sunday services by our experts, Carlos Navarro and Daniel Grippo, PhD. I am especially looking forward to the talks on Presidenta Claudia Sheinbaum and on Mexico and the current US administration.

Humanist Discussion ZOOM Group

You need to start reading if you plan to actively participate in this month's Humanist discussion. The topic is the concept of anti-natalism, the belief that creating children is unethical. They will meet on Wednesday, July 23 at 11:00. Please contact bobkoches@gmail.com for the reading list.

Happenings Outside the Fellowship

Ely Contreras has invited the community to a second performance of To Whom I May Concern. People living with memory changes share their stories of how they live; how they cope and manage life after their diagnosis of dementia. Our Ely is the leader of Lakeside Daybreak Dementia Support. This will be at Sunday's Open Circle at 10:30. You will need to come directly here because our service begins at 12:00, but there should be time.
