This Week's Service

Reverend Matt Alspaugh will give Sunday's sermon, Practicing Hope. December is a time of darkness, even here in Mexico. The winter solstice reminds us to wait, for the dark times will turn : But what if hope feels naive, or impossible, given the state of the world? This Sunday, we explore the difference between wishing for hope and the spiritual discipline of practicing hope in dark will be the service associate.

Next Week's Service, December 21 at 11:45

Welcome to our holiday service, December 21, full of joy, tradition, and music, lots of music. Heidi MacLennan will share stories from the many places she has lived and the associated traditic Doane will be here to accompany us in person.

At the end of the service everyone is invited into the garden for stollen and hot apple cider. So stay and enjoy the fellowship!

**Note we are starting the service early at 11:45 AM

Pass the Basket

December's basket proceeds will go to Tepehua. The Tepehua neighborhood is situated on the hillside above downtown Chapala. It is considered one of the poorest neighborhoods in the stal the poor of the village can go for food, water, counseling, education, guidance and help of any kind.

Taco Fiesta!!

We will be selling tickets for our annual New Year's Day Taco Fiesta this Sunday. This is a long standing LCUUF tradition and it should not be missed. Watch the tortillas being by hand. There have fillings that accommodate vegans and vegetarians as well as the omnivores. This is, in my opinion, the best event of the year. Don't miss it.

The Taco Fiesta will be from 12:00 to 2:00 on January 1. Bring drinks and holiday leftovers to share, $200 per person.
