This Week's Service

Rev. Matt Alspaugh will give the talk, Times of Transformation. One of the Unitarian Universalist Association's shared values is summarized as: talk briefly about the theological meaning of this willingness to adapt, and what it means for our own spiritual growth. We'll also talk about how i
As part of the service, we will recognize our newest members of the congregation - a transformation in itself. Lamar Allen will be the service lea our Annual General Meeting.

Annual General Meeting and Pizza

Our AGM will follow the service and a pizza lunch. The meeting agenda is posted at the end of the newsletter. Please plan to attend both.

Two People Who Deserve Our Special Thanks

Kriss Gang is stepping down on Sunday after serving for four years as our president. Kriss brings a lifetime of experience as a Universalist and when Kriss was a boy and Rev. Meg Riley was Kriss's Religious Education teacher. As an adult, Kriss had an active role in UUA operations, an Thank you, Kriss.

Roy Haynes is also stepping down after years of creating our slide shows, including those used in celebrations of life. The most moving part of memorial that Roy created every year. I knew every person we have lost and I am deeply grateful to Roy for the kindness and compassion he i time and talent, and very, very patient with those who need his services. Thank you, Roy.
