This Sunday's Service

Greg Custer will deliver Sunday's talk, The Life of Neill James: Ajijic's Godmother. The 99-year life of one remarkable woman has left a lasting legacy Lakeside. Moving to Ajijic in 1943 at age 14, she was a philanthropic enterpriser that still resonate with Mexican and foreign community members. James had a remarkable career before landing in Ajijic as a renowned adventure travel writer. Her service to the community was profound and lasting.

Greg Custer has lived in Ajijic since 2015 and has worked in international tourism marketing for over 40 years. He currently serves of the Lake Chapala Society board and operates weekly Workshops.
